Agricultural Marketing Service. Compiled from reports of packer and shipper purchases; such purchases do not include pigs, boars, stags, extremely rough sows, or cripples. These weighted prices do not include processing tax. Tax of 50 cents per 100 pounds was imposed from Nov. 5 to Nov. 30, 1933; $1 from Dec. 1, 1933, to Jan. 31, 1934; $1.50 from Feb. 1 to Feb. 28; and $2.25 from Mar. 1, 1934, to Jan. 6, 1936.

Data for 1901-30 are available in 1932 Yearbook, table 336.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Compiled in Canadian dollars per 100 pounds as follows: January 1930-January 1936, Livestock and Animal Products Statistics, Ottawa, annual; January 1937 to date, Monthly Bulletin of Agricultural Statistics, Ottawa. Method of obtaining the monthly average prices, not explained. Annual averages are weighted. Hog prices at Toronto are on a "weighed off cars" basis. Price series converted to United States dollars per 100 pounds at current monthly rates of exchange (annual averages converted at annual exchange rates). Beginning Sept. 16, 1939, converted at official rate.

<sup>3</sup> Adjustments were made for sheep and lambs shipped in and changes in inventory.

Agricultural Marketing Service.

Footnotes for table 542:

<sup>1</sup> Average for 5-year period, if available; otherwise for any year or years within this period, except as otherwise stated.

<sup>2</sup> Preliminary.

<sup>3</sup> Average of 1926 estimate for 96 percent of the municipalities and the final figure of the April 26, 1930, census. This was the first complete census for all Mexico, including cities and towns.

<sup>26</sup> Comparable totals for number of countries indicated in parentheses. This includes estimates for total European territory.

Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations. Compiled from reports of U. S. Government representatives abroad, original official sources, the International Institute of Agriculture, and the reports of the Imperial Economic Committee of Great Britain, unless otherwise stated. Owing to unsettled conditions in Europe, the estimates for 1939-41 as reported by the countries of Central Europe are not strictly comparable with earlier years, as indicated by footnotes.

<sup>3</sup> Adjustments were made for sheep and lambs shipped in and changes in inventory.

<sup>1</sup> Preliminary.<sup>2</sup> Estimates of the Buenos Aires branch of the First National Bank of Boston, revised at end of season on basis of actual exports and official reports of stocks.<sup>3</sup> Cable from Agricultural Attaché, Paul O. Nyhus.<sup>4</sup> Estimates based on exports alone, or exports, stocks, and domestic consumption.<sup>5</sup> Estimate based on reports of 15 percent decrease, compared with 1940.<sup>6</sup> Revised estimates.<sup>7</sup> Revised estimates based on recent surveys made by the Junta Nacional de la Industria Lanar, established in 1937.<sup>8</sup> Rough approximations.<sup>9</sup> Includes in addition to the produce of the Union of South Africa that of surrounding British Colonies, which is exported through Union ports, i. e. Basutoland, Bechuanaland, Southwest Africa, and Southern Rhodesia. Excludes wool exported on skins, estimated between 20 million and 25 million pounds.<sup>10</sup> Revised from 1934 on basis of new census figures.<sup>11</sup> As reported by pulleries and is mostly in a washed condition.<sup>12</sup> Estimate for 1934.<sup>13</sup> Newfoundland, Hawaii, Dutch West Indies, Guatemala, and Salvador.<sup>14</sup> Estimate based on sheep numbers and any other available data.<sup>15</sup> Imperial Economic Committee.<sup>16</sup> Includes countries producing 2 million pounds or less, i. e., Sweden, Denmark, Iceland, Belgium, Switzerland, and Austria.<sup>17</sup> Union of Soviet Socialist Republics figures are shown at end of table.<sup>18</sup> Includes estimates for Italian Libya, French West Africa, Kenya, and Uganda, none of which produces more than 3,500,000 pounds annually.<sup>19</sup> British South Africa included under Southern Hemisphere.<sup>20</sup> Revised on basis of recent official estimates.<sup>21</sup> Estimates of organization holding monopoly of wool trade.<sup>22</sup> Includes other countries of Asia, except China, none of which produces more than 3,500,000 pounds annually.<sup>23</sup> China shown separately at end of table.<sup>24</sup> Rounded to tens of millions.<sup>25</sup> Estimate for 1941 based on estimates for 29 countries which produced 91 percent of the total in 1940.<sup>26</sup> Unofficial estimates based on sheep numbers in 1933, 1934 and 1935 and an estimate of the Chinese Economic Bulletin. Former Manchuria, Turkestan, and Inner Mongolia included with China.

Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations. Compiled from official or reliable commercial sources, except as otherwise indicated by footnotes. Figures in parentheses are interpolated or carried forward. Includes wool produced mostly in the spring in the Northern Hemisphere and that produced in the season beginning July 1 or Oct. 1 of the same calendar year in the Southern Hemisphere. Pulled wool included for most countries at its greasy equivalent.

<sup>1</sup> Final revised figures covering entire industry except as otherwise noted. The changes in relationship between consumption of apparel wool on a scoured basis and on a greasy basis during the period from 1918 to 1941 are due largely to the changes in the proportion of foreign wool, which is light shrinking, in the total consumption. Conversion to both scoured and greasy shorn basis is made by the Bureau of the Census, assuming average yields varying with origin, grade, and whether shorn or pulled.

<sup>2</sup> All percentages are approximate and are based on consumption on a greasy shorn basis as shown by preliminary statistics for all years. Final figures are not reported by origin and grade. Percentages for 1921 to 1934 are based on consumption figures for 75 to 80 percent of the industry. Beginning with 1935 percentages are based on figures for the entire industry.

<sup>4</sup> 36's to 56's inclusive. Includes  $\frac{3}{8}$  blood,  $\frac{1}{4}$  blood, low  $\frac{1}{4}$  blood, domestic common and braid, and foreign Lincoln.

<sup>1</sup> Wools grown under range conditions. Territory wools show a wide variation in shrinkage and color.<sup>2</sup> Wools that are bright in color and of relatively light shrinkage. Nearly all the wools grown in the States east of the Mississippi River are of this type. Bright wools are also grown in parts of Minnesota, Iowa, and Missouri. Wools from Kentucky, Virginia, and Tennessee usually bring prices from 1 to 3 cents per pound, grease basis, above other bright fleeces, because of their lighter shrinkage. Prior to 1938, the "Bright Fleece" wools were designated as "Ohio and Pennsylvania" wools.

Agricultural Marketing Service. Prices are from the livestock and meat reporting service, and are based on the mean of weekly range of quotations. Earlier data in 1932 Yearbook, table 368.

<sup>1</sup> In order to show the total change in all livestock numbers as a single group, as related to the feeds used by the various species, different animal units have been devised and the estimated numbers on farms Jan. 1 have been converted to these units, which are intended to allow for differences in size and feed requirements of the several species.

The weighting used in computing the animal units shown in this table has been varied somewhat over the entire period in order to make allowance for changes in feeding and marketing practices.

In recent years the weighting per animal has been as follows:

(A) Representing feed-grain-consuming animals, excluding chickens: Horses and mules 1.14; milk cows 1.00; other cattle, 0.51; sheep, 0.04; hogs, 0.87.

(B) Representing hay-forage and pasture-consuming animals: Horses and mules, 1.00; milk cows, 1.00; other cattle, 0.75; sheep 0.12.

(C) Jan. 1 combination, based largely on relative weights.

(D) Total feed-grain consuming animals, including chickens, or chickens added to (A).

<sup>2</sup> Italic figures are from the census. Figures for census year 1900 represent cows kept for milk, 2 years old and over; 1910, cows and heifers kept for milk, born before Jan. 1, 1909 (15½ months and over); 1920, dairy cattle 2 years old and over kept mainly for milk production; 1925, 1930, 1935, and 1940, number of cows milked in 1924, 1929, 1934, and 1939. <sup>1</sup> Revised. <sup>2</sup> Estimated average number during year, heifers not freshened excluded.<sup>3</sup> Excludes milk sucked by calves and milk produced by cows not on farms.<sup>4</sup> Approximations based chiefly on the population in small towns and rural areas where most families purchase their milk supply directly from local farmers. Estimates include milk equivalent of cream.

<sup>1</sup> Estimates include milk delivered to creameries, condensaries, cheese factories, and market milk receiving stations, but exclude market milk sold to other farmers for local delivery.<sup>2</sup> Approximations based chiefly on the population in small towns and rural areas, where most families purchase their milk supply directly from local farmers.<sup>3</sup> Preliminary.

<sup>4</sup> Value of milk, cream, and farm butter sold, plus the value of these products consumed in the household on farms where produced.

<sup>5</sup> Milk produced on farms valued in each State at average returns per 100 pounds for milk utilized in dairy products sold. In addition to gross income, it includes the value of whole milk fed to calves.

<sup>5</sup> Milk produced on farms valued at average returns per 100 pounds for milk utilized in dairy products sold. In addition to gross income it includes the value of whole milk fed to calves.

Agricultural Marketing Service.

Based on reports from milk-market administrators, cooperative milk-marketing associations, whole-milk distributors, and milk-products manufacturing plants. Computed by weighting annual average State prices by estimated pounds sold. Data for earlier years published in Wholesale Prices Received by Farmers for Whole Milk, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, February 1937.

<sup>1</sup> Includes both farm- and factory-made butter. These estimates include some butter used in other products, such as ice cream.

<sup>3</sup> Per capita production. Production of ice cream in 1937-41 not strictly comparable with preceding years, because of the inclusion of production of small retailers and counter freezers not previously included.

<sup>4</sup> Milk and the milk equivalent of cream consumed per capita by that part of the population not on rural farms. These estimates include some milk and cream used in such products as ice cream and supersede estimates previously issued.

<sup>5</sup> Based on estimates of milk production on farms and elsewhere, with milk fed to calves deducted in calculating per capita consumption.

<sup>1</sup> Includes whey butter.<sup>2</sup> Cream cheese only.<sup>3</sup> Excluding American full skim cheese and cottage, pot, and bakers' cheese.<sup>4</sup> Unsweetened condensed milk (plain condensed) was classified as "Evaporated milk (unsweetened), bulk goods," in previous years.<sup>5</sup> Human food and animal feed not separated.<sup>6</sup> Not available.<sup>7</sup> Includes approximately 1,249 counter freezers and other small retailers, with a combined production of around 5,395,000 gallons in New York, New Jersey, Georgia, Minnesota, and Idaho. Also includes some such plants in other States whose production is not separable. Very little of the ice cream made by these units in 1936 was reported in the survey for that year. The reported production of ice cream in 1937, therefore, is not strictly comparable with that reported for 1936.

Agricultural Marketing Service. Quotations include some purchases other than for the manufacture of butter. Based on reports of special price reporters. Monthly prices, by States, prior to June 1932 weighted by number of milk cows Jan. 1 to obtain a price for the United States. Beginning in June 1932 State prices weighted by volume of cream sold as butterfat, 1929 census. Yearly prices, by States, weighted by estimated volume of cream sold, 1929-37, to obtain yearly prices for the United States.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Compiled in original currencies and units as follows: Denmark—Danish Butter Journal (Smør Tidende), Copenhagen, weekly. Average of official quotations as fixed each Thursday by 2 committees, representing dairy and commercial interests, respectively. Beginning April 11, 1941, official quotation suspended; fixed price quoted instead. New Zealand Monthly Reports of Government Statistician at Wellington, received by letter. Average of wholesale prices on 1st and 15th of each month through February 1933. Beginning March 1933, prices are for 15th of month. The series is an average of prices at the following centers: Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch, and Dunedin.

Prices converted to cents per pound at current monthly rates of exchange (beginning March 1933 New Zealand prices converted at exchange rates for 15th of month). Annual averages computed from monthly prices carried to 2 decimals. For Danish butter prices for years 1882-1932, see the 1923 Yearbook, table 450, and 1937 Yearbook, table 429.

Agricultural Marketing Service; based on returns from special price reporters. Monthly prices, by States, weighted by census production in 1919 to obtain the United States averages from 1931 through May 1932, and by 1929 census sales thereafter. Yearly price obtained by weighting annual State averages by sales in each State.

Agricultural Marketing Service. Covers service to poultry-canning plants and plants preparing full-drawn poultry for sale as such, under cooperative agreements between the Federal and State governments. Inspections are made for condition and wholesomeness and not for grade. The service is optional and is paid for by the applicants.

<sup>1</sup> 30-dozen cases.<sup>2</sup> Quantities given are net weight. The quantity of frozen (or liquid) eggs obtained from 1 case of 30-dozen shell eggs has gradually increased. Different conversion factors have been used for different periods, as follows: 1916-20, about 35 pounds from 1 case; 1921-25, 35.5 pounds; 1926-30, 36 pounds; 1931-33, 36.5 pounds; 1934-36, 37 pounds, and from 1937 to date, 37.5 pounds.<sup>3</sup> These are the same quantities as shown above, under frozen eggs, reduced to the basis of equivalent cases of shell eggs by dividing by the conversion factors shown in footnote 2.

STATISTICS OF FOREIGN TRADE IN AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

The term "foreign trade" is applied to trade between the United States, including noncontiguous territories, and foreign countries. Trade between continental United States and noncontiguous territories is referred to as "shipments." The Philippine Islands and, prior to January 1, 1935, the Virgin Islands are included with foreign countries. Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and, since January 1, 1935, the Virgin Islands are noncontiguous territories. Beginning January 1, 1940, trade with foreign countries through the customs district of Virgin Islands is not included in United States trade statistics. Figures for shipments out of noncontiguous territories include small quantities to other noncontiguous territories. In statistics of foreign trade, forest products and distilled liquors are considered nonagricultural products, as distinct from the strictly agricultural products.

<sup>2</sup> General imports from 1910 through 1923. Figures from 1924 through June 30, 1933, are also general imports, excepting wool, where imports for consumption have been used in order to show the degree of competitiveness. Beginning July 1, 1933, imports for consumption.

Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations. Compiled from official records, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

General note.—This table, as published in the 1941 Agricultural Statistics, included 59 commodities. Four commodities (cornstarch and corn flour, fresh grapes, dried peas, and soybeans) have been added and the tabulations for all commodities, except cotton, have been reconstructed to show trade with Latin America. For the years 1933-34 and 1934-35, no country detail is available for cornstarch and corn flour, and dried peas. In the case of pork products, there is no country detail available for those countries which have been added.
